NEW-YORK LOSES A GAME.

ST. LOUIS WINS BY FINE PLAYING.

EACH CLUB HAS ONE TO ITS SCORE NOW IN THE SERIES OF CHAMPIONSHIP CONTESTS.

The 6,000 people at the Polo Grounds yesterday tnessed a scientific game of baseball. It was a conthat would stir one's blood unless the onlooker vas so prejudiced in favor of the New-York nine tha he could not recognize merit in any other club. The game was between the New-York and St. Louis clubs and was the second of the series for the championship the world. The St. Louis club won, and now ch team has a victory and a defeat to its credit. The result was due simply to the fact that the Westteam played a better game than the local nine The umpiring of both Kelly and Gaffney was impartial and correct, and the defeat of the local players cannot be laid to that ill-used individual, the The St. Louis club will win several more games in this series if such playing as was done yesrday is continued.

lain faced the local batters for the first time, and he made a record that any young man may well feel proud of. The rosy-cheeked youngster yesday proved himself a pitcher of great skill and To use a phrase common among the ocsupants of the bleaching-boards, he "sized up" the list five New-York batters in a novel way. He gave three of the first four batters who faced him their es on called balls. He learned some of the batters' ak points and did not send another player to first on called balls during the game. The New-York playwill hit Chamberlain's curves more freely later on, but they could do little against his pitching ay. Chamberlain uses both speed and curve oms to have excellent control of the ball. He relies principally for effectiveness on change of pace Welch also pitched a great game, except in the minth inning, when the St. Louis men earned two Welch, however, did good work on the whole, and the defeat is not due so much to his ineffective pitching as to the inability of the local players to ndle the bat with effect.

The New-York players did by far the better work on the field and on the bases than their opponents, but hardly showed that energy and team work ex-hibited by the St. Louis men. If the Giants imagined that they had a walkover they should dismiss such silly ideas from their heads at once. Overconfidence is neither becoming nor beneficial in baseball players. The New-York team ought to capture the series, but they will have to play baseball as they have seldem played it to accomplish that result. Keefe and King will be the pitchers in to-day's game. York ought to win. The local players had an excellent chance to score both in the sixth and eighth innings yesterday, but the inability of Ward, Connor and Richardson to hit the ball safely prevented

McCarthy tried one of the tricks in the ninth inning for which these lively players are famous. He tried to score from second base without going within ten et of the third base, but he was promptly declared out. Robinson, O'Neil' and Ewing made remarkable running catches and were loudly applauded. Neither ide scored in the first inning, although Chamberlain was wild and sent three men to first on called balls. In the second inning the St. Louis men took advantage of Ewing's rather poor work, and scoring one run took the lead. McCarthy made a safe hit to centre took the lead. McCarthy made a safe hit to centre field, and went to second on a passed ball. McCarthy got to third when Ewing muffed Lyons's third strike. White was sent to first on called balls, and started for second. Ewing attempted to catch White off but threw high and McCarthy scored.

After that both pitchers settled down, and the batters were at their mercy for the next half down innings. In the ninth inning the St. Louis men rallied at the bat and added two more runs to their score. The runs were carned. O'Neil made a bunt hit and got safely to first and was advanced to second on a pretty hit to centre field by Comiskey. McCarthy also made a hit which sailed over second and lit at slattery's feet. O'Neil scored. Lyons went out to Slattery and Comiskey scored before the ball could be returned to the home plate. The score was:

SUDDEN AND SAD.

The Solemn Warning Which a Recent Untimely Death Has Given and the Lesson It Teaches.

The recent sad and sudden death of Mr. Henry Monett, General Passenger Agent of the New-York Central Rail-road, has east more or less gloom over the community where he was so widely and popularly known, both for his business and social qualities. Mr. Monett died of pneumonia and was carried off in the prime of health and He had little if any warning.

vigor. He had little if any warning.

There are thousands of men and women in all parts of the land to-day who are in apparently perfect health, but who, especially at this season, are liable to be carried away by this same dread complaint. It steals into the system like a thief, tightens the chest, shortens the breath, checks like a thief, tightens the chest, shortens the breath, cheeks the circulation, and before the victim is hardly aware prostration and possibly death follow. There is but one thing to do upon the first approach of all these terrible symptoms, and that is to take vigorous measures and bring about a reaction. Nothing will certainly do this except pure spirits, and the thousands of cases in which Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has cured, and the innumerable lives it has saved, prove that it is far above all other spirits or preparations in its health-restoring, life-giving

These are facts of the greatest importance, and such as concern the interests of all. EMBRACING THE LEADING STYLES

We open to-day a second invoice of the popular "Protean" scarfs, more popular here than elsewhere, because our price is only $1.25 for choicest patterns. Right beside them are the latest London made scarfs, our own importation; 50c., $1.00 and $1.25. Collars go with cravats. We sell Virgoe, Middleton & Co.'s all linen collars, with tabs, 25c. each; our own brand of collars of same quality linen as other twenty-five cent collars, 12 1-2 cents each; our 09-cent collar is good enough for most folks.

The English Smoking-Jackets we sell at $6, $7.50 and $8.50 are beauties. The extremely handsome ones that fashionable Haberdashers get twelve and fifteen dollars for are here only $9 and $10.

Our dollar fawn-colored Merino Underwear is fairly walking away, supported by 38 cent "Guyot" braces.
